Two Sales.

Seaborn Luce, the popular auctioneer, has arranged two sales which deserve the attention of the public. At the first sale he will dispose of one of the finest collections of plants ever seen in Honolulu. This sale will take place on the 29th instant, and the plants will be on exhibition several days before. The other sale is set for the 6th of December, and will be the first evening Christmas sale of the season. A splendid invoice of recently imported goods will then be offered to the community. For details in regard to these two sales we refer to advertisements and posters which will appear during next week.

The American League.

Last night's meeting of the American League, was attended by a large and representative crowd. After the routine business had been disposed of Mr. E. Towse arose and after a few appropriate remarks presented a resolution the text of which is a request to President Dole, and the executive to exercise clemency in regard to the political prisoners yet confined in Oahu jail. The eloquent remarks of Mr. Towse made a deep impression on the audience, and the resolution was carried without a dissenting voice.

It was ordered that the resolution be presented to the government to-day.

The petition which has been circulated during the last three days for the same purpose was read to assembly and the signatures of the officers of the League attached to it.
